Algiers, July 16.

THE Hester a Dutch Ship, which was taken and brought in here on the 7th of this Month by one of our Corsairs, was so much damaged in the Fight that it was found necessary to break her up and dispose of her Materials. Two of our chief Corsairs, which had been long out a cruising, are come in hither without having taken any Prize. On the 4th Instant two Corsairs of 24 Guns each, put to Sea. On the 8th three went out, one of them carrying 36 Guns, and another 40; and on the 9th two more, one of 38, the other of 48 Guns. These 7 Corsairs are gone to cruise towards the Streights and in the Ocean.

Milan, July 27. Mr. Davenant, his Britannick Majesty's Envoy with the Republick of Genoa, having by Order of the King his Master repaired to the Court of Modena, to compliment the Duke in his Majesty's Name on the Marriage of the Prince with Mademoiselle the Daughter of the Duke of Orleans, was received by his Highness with all Marks of Distinction; and his Highness made him a Present of a Diamond Ring of considerable Value. The said Envoy has lik wife been at the Courts of Parma and Florence, and will soon return to his Residence at Genoa.

Peterbourg, July 22. M. de Wilde, Resident of the States General, arrived here Yesterday from Holland, and to Day notified his Arrival to the Court. He expects an Audience of the Czar in a few Days. M. de Romantof, Adjutant General, was married Yesterday to a Daughter of M. de Matueof, formerly the Czar's Ambassador in England and Holland. His Czarish Majesty was at the Wedding, with all his Court, and the foreign Ministers.

Hague, Aug. 10. The Intrigues for the Election of a Pensionary are still carrying on, but managed with so much Address and Precaution, that it is not yet possible to make any tolerable Guess to whose Share this Employment may fall. The little Towns of Edam and Purmerend, have erected two new Companies of Insurance; and notwithstanding the Number of those already on foot, have not only filled their Subscriptions, but sell their Actions at 10 and 15 per cent Advance. The Magistrates of Amsterdam seeing this Rage increase every Day, and having some Projects of the like Nature offered to them, assembled several of their chief Merchants last Week, to know whether these Companies were advantageous or not for the Publick; and all having unanimously declared, that they looked upon them to be very ruinous to Trade, the Magistrates not only rejected the several Proposals which had been made them of this Nature, but forbid the Brokers of the Town to pass any Contracts relating to the Actions of the said private Companies, on pain of losing their Employments and of a Fine of 1000 Florins.

Paris, Aug. 21. Since the Publication of the Arrêt of the 15th, importing, that the Bank Notes of 10000 and 1000 Livres should be current no longer than the 1st of October, those Notes lost very considerably in Exchange for those of 100, and of 10 Livres, but upon a Report which has been spread, that they will be continued current till the 1st of March next, they have a little recovered their Credit, and are only at 160 per Thousand Discount. The Bank has not for some Days past delivered out any small Notes for large ones, nor have the King's Exchanges paid any Bills in Specie. 'Tis said that great Quantities of Bank Notes have within these few Days been paid into the current Accounts of the Bank, and it is believed that the 300 Millions assigned to the Town of Paris, will be filled up before the 1st of next Month, the Time prefixed by the late Arrêt for the closing of these Books. On Sunday the 18th, the Cardinal de Rohan was several Hours in Conference with the Regent, upon the Subject of the Accommodation projected here touching the Pope's Constitution. The Parliament who have had that Affair some time before them, are said to be unwilling to register it without consulting the Sorbonne, it being an Affair which properly belonged to that learned Body to judge of. The Princes of Conti was brought to Bed on Monday Night of a Prince. The Mareschal d'Estree designs to set out on Saturday next for his Government of Bretagne.
